

Filling machine

This machine brings back the soil from the mounds already formed to cover the canes at the bottom of the furrow and to level the inter-row trenches.

The work of the blades is adjustable on the opening to adapt to any type of plantation. The blades are also interchangeable.

To compact the soil at the rear of the machine, an adjustable roller is attached after the blades.

